Monday's Record-Breaking Values

Tomorrow finds us, as usual, prepared with a feast of bargains; you'll find the store abounding in fresh achievements of value-giving, that ably sustain our well-earned prestige.

The new King's Palace is now entering on the most glorious period of its career, rebuilt, restocked, reorganized. No feat of purchasing, no stroke of underselling is too great for us to undertake. The determination to excel in dollar-saving offerings admits of no limit to our efforts. Tomorrow the most wanted goods await you at startling savings.

Greatest Skirt Purchase in Our History

Without doubt, the most stupendous feat of garment buying ever performed by a Washington house—the entire stock of Joseph & Solkow, of 61 East Ninth Street, New York.

This firm has a world-wide reputation as makers of fine skirts, and their goods are found only in the most exclusive houses.

In response to a telegram from them, our buyer hurried to New York, and secured the entire lot at less than 50c on the dollar. We congratulate ourselves on our good fortune, as several leading New York houses were after them, and the competition was keen.

These are strictly high-grade skirts—not a cheap skirt in the lot. The firm doesn't make that kind. Qualities the best, styles the latest. Entire lot, worth $6.00 to $12.50, on sale tomorrow at the Main Store only at $3.90
